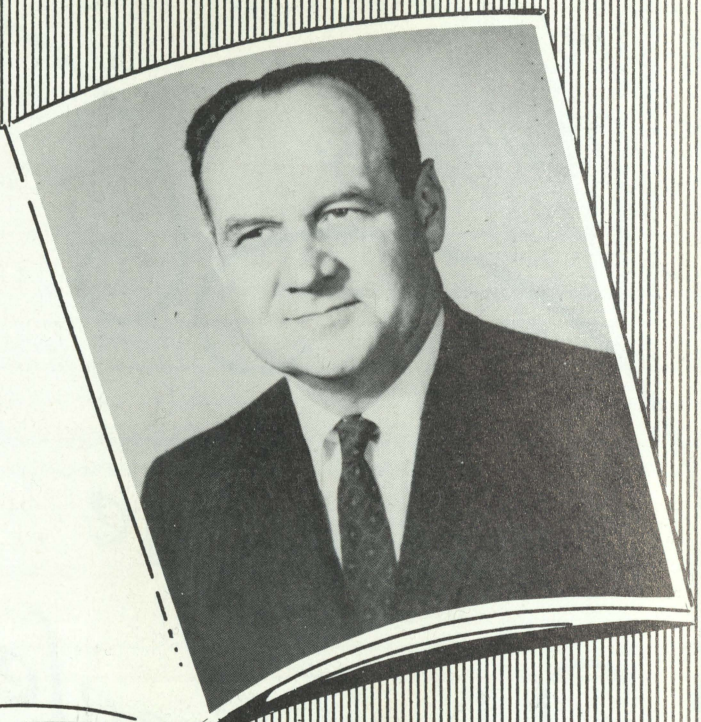
The Eagles Nest

1961

Principal's Message



It has always seemed inexpressibly sad to me that dreams should depart with youth, or that youth should be regarded but as a pleasant dream. He who loses his dreams as he grows older loses much that makes life delightful. Our dreams are an essential part of our development; we must dream great things when we are young and hopeful. Then as we achieve maturity, we can translate those dreams into action. To dream and then to do constitutes the field of life's endeavor.

I hope that it will be possible for each of you to hold fast to your dreams and, with the passing of the years, to turn them into reality.

Fred Graf

Dedication

It is with deep affection and admiration that the Senior Class dedicates its '61 Eagles Nest to Mrs. Gladys Helm. It is our way of expressing our gratitude and sincere appreciation for all that she has done as a teacher, counselor, and friend.

MR. CHESTER V. TOWNSEND, JR.

President of Board

TO THE CLASS OF 1961

For every opportunity we have in our lives today, there is a corresponding responsibility. For the splendid opportunity of freedom, there is the responsibility of safe-guarding that freedom. We believe that nowhere is the youth of America given a better laboratory for the preparation of life than in our present day school system. In many instances real life situations are provided to develop judgment, loyalty, stability, and other essentials for good character.

To the Class of 1961 - Good luck and our sincere best wishes for the future. It is our hope that your time spent in Lord Baltimore not only has been and will be the most pleasant time of your lives but also will serve to give you the background for continued advancement in whatever field you may choose as well as the title, - Outstanding Citizen.

President,

C. V. Townsend Jr.

Class Advisor

TO THE CLASS OF 1961

For six years I have been privileged to be closely associated with you at Lord Baltimore. We have grown together through strife, turmoil, and fun.

It has been my pleasure to see you develop over these years into the fine young people you are today.

May your eagerness, enthusiasm, and determination serve you well as you meet the challenges of the future.

My wishes go with each of you for a happy, worthwhile life in the years ahead.

Class History

In September, 1940, fifty scrubbed faces entered the old elementary school to begin our education. This was the day to which we had been looking forward. Because of the large number of us, we were divided into two groups - twenty-five of us toddled along with Mrs. Hiestand, while the other twenty-five followed Mrs. Gordy. This was the beginning of a long twelve year struggle.

In our second year of school we excitedly moved to the new elementary building where we spent the remainder of our elementary years.

Upon entering seventh grade, we experienced quite a change. Much to our disappointment we found that we no longer had recesses. Our number now being fifty, we divided into two sections once again with Mrs. Gladys Helm and Mr. John O'Donnell as our advisors. Jointly the two groups elected officers as follows: President, Donald Rickards; Vice President, Bob Temple; Secretary, Diane Rogers; Treasurer, Rose Mary Mumford and Ruth Ann Hudson.

In reaching the eighth grade we were still experiencing the shock of having entered junior high, but we went ahead and elected class officers as follows: President, Diane Rogers; Vice President, Pat Mitchell; Secretary, Linda Graef; Treasurer, Gail Davidson.

As we reached our Freshman year, we trembled as we thought of what lay ahead, but we knew we could not turn back; so we hurried to elect our class officers: President, Ronald Kelly; Vice President, Gail Davidson; Secretary, Billy Townsend; Treasurer, Ruth Ann Hudson. We now numbered thirty-two.

Our sophomore class officers were: President, Bob Temple; Vice President, Wayne Hickman; Secretary, Sandra Marvel; Treasurer, Sheila Mumford.

Our junior year was an exciting year with the following elected officers: President, Bob Temple; Vice President, Linda Graef; Secretary, Gail Davidson;

Treasurer, Diane Rogers. Early we began working on the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Our theme was "Fantasy Land." This everyone enjoyed.

Now our big year is here with our officers: President, Ronald Kelly; Vice President, Wayne Hickman; Secretary, Sandra Marvel; Treasurer, Diane Rogers. The junior class presented us with a fabulous Junior-Senior Prom. A week later we went on our Senior trip which proved to be interesting and educational.

On June the ninth, 1961, we sadly left the halls of Lord Baltimore High School. Although our formal education at L.B. is ended, ever will we cherish the memories of pleasant years together.

Class Motto

Be not simply good - be good for something.

Senior Class Officers

Will

To the juniors, we leave our ability to start trouble without getting caught.

To the sophomore girls, the senior girls leave their dignified manner; and to the boys, the senior boys leave their ability to make fudge during seventh period.

To the freshmen, we leave our neat appearance in school.

To Mr. Graef, we leave a bottle of black dye for the many gray hairs that we caused.

To Mrs. Joines, the yearbook club leaves a "smell of a sound."

To Mrs. McCann, we leave a pen and a bottle of ink for the many excuses which we used.

To the cafeteria ladies, we leave our lunch table numbers which we never used.

To the custodians, we leave an electric floor polisher for the many times we slid up and down the halls.

To the faculty, we leave our wishes for more peace and quiet with our absence.

To the school board, we leave our sincere esteem and respect for the opportunity of receiving the high caliber of learning which they have enabled us to obtain.

Ruth Marie Hudson leaves her ability to skip school without getting caught to Jimmy Robinson.

Bob Temple leaves his straight hair to Bobby Webber.

Carolyn Daisey leaves her long hair to Delores Hickman.

Billy Townsend leaves his boisterous nature to Freddie Taylor and his height to Allen Rickards.

Rosemary Mumford leaves her short hair to Patty Wooten.

Sandra Marvel leaves her neatness to Harry Banks.

Hayward Townsend leaves his ability to get along with teachers to Freddy Taylor.

Norris Adkins leaves his ability to smoke in the bathroom without getting caught to Charles Parsons.

Eva Lee Murray leaves her dimples to Sally Passwaters.

Gary DeVaney leaves his long hours of tedious study to Betty Lou Vogel.

Ruth Ann Hudson leaves drum majorette to Terry Lee Steele.

Ronald Kelly leaves his flunking grades to Kenny Marvel.

Jehu Walters leaves his love affair in the hall to Robert West.

Mickie Mezick leaves her ability to flirt to Lois West.

Tommy Mitchell leaves his time made up at lunch hour to Wilmer Steele.

Wilmer Rogers leaves his ability to play football to Don Robinson.

Wayne Hickman leaves his ability to win honors in F.F.A. to Brice Quillen.

Elwood Marvel leaves his good reputation to Donald Quillen.

Sheila Mumford leaves her quiet way to Nancy Rickards.

Gail Davidson leaves her frequent trips to the office to Sonny Hart.

Karen Mead leaves her cheerleading ability to Evelyn Townsend.

Linda Graef leaves her loud mouth in class to Kenny Evans.

Lydia Quillen leaves her many trips to Selbyville to Buddy Harbough.

Mary Lee Baker leaves her ability to dance to Billy Pusey.

Jean Justice leaves her slimness to Ann Calhoun.

To L.B.H.S., Tildy Hanhart leaves the periods and teams, lunch and fire bells, a brick building filled with funny kids and teachers whom I pity. That's life - American life which I enjoy so much.

Carolyn Shirley leaves her height to Anna Lee Tucker.

Lord Baltimore "A.F.S." Exchange Student

I am Tildy Hanhart, the first A.F.S. Exchange Student at Lord Baltimore School. On August 21, 1960, I arrived in the little town, Ocean View, and have lived here since in the very nice family of the principal Mr. Graef.

In my native country, Switzerland, I left many dear classmates in the Kantonsschule Schaffhausen (my school).

The beginning of my wonderful experience was the boat trip over the endless Atlantic on board of the majestic "Seven Seas."

In the flat country of Delaware I have enjoyed very much both the river and the ocean and have had a wonderful time.

Soon I'm going to leave to go back to the country of beautiful scenery - mountains and lakes - of skiing, wandering, and a lot of fun, too.

Searching for facts, taking pictures, writing the copy, making layouts, and editing, all went into the making of the 1961 "Eagle's Nest." Success did not come easy. One could find the yearbook staff during many free periods working hard to find just exactly the right word or picture combination.

Nest Staff

Often there were times when everyone felt like giving up, but they didn't because they had the help and guidance of their yearbook advisor, Mrs. Martha Joines, and the knowledge that the 1961 Eagle's Nest would be the best yet. Hope you will enjoy it???

The Staff . . .
